Hanover, VA – On Saturday, January 20, 2018, deputies responded to the Rutland subdivision for a report of a suspicious situation. Once on scene, deputies observed several individuals flee from the neighborhood.

Deputies began their investigation and determined that numerous unlocked vehicles had been entered and had property stolen throughout the Rutland, Cool Spring Forest and the Villages at Cool Spring subdivisions.

During this investigation, it was also discovered that a vehicle had been stolen from the Villages at Cool Spring in the 9400 block of Thornecrest Drive. The stolen vehicle is a 2003 Cadillac, gold in color, four door CTS.

Investigators continue to process evidence and are seeking the suspects in these cases. All of these crimes occurred during the early morning hours of Saturday, January 20, 2018.
