Fatal Crash Investigation

Hanover, Va. – On Wednesday, February 16, 2022, at approximately 6:01 p.m., deputies responded to the intersection of Lee Davis Road and Laurel Meadows Drive for a two-vehicle crash involving a motorcycle.

The preliminary investigation revealed that a 2003 Suzuki motorcycle was traveling northbound on Lee Davis Road when a 2017 Acura SUV made a left turn from Laurel Meadows Drive onto Lee Davis Road colliding with the motorcycle.

The driver of the 2003 Suzuki motorcycle, Noah D. Smith, 21, Mechanicsville, was pronounced deceased at VCU Medical Center as a result of injuries sustained from the crash. There were no other occupants on the motorcycle.

The driver and sole occupant of the 2017 Acura did not sustain any injuries.

Investigators are still collecting information.

We extend our deepest condolences to the family of Noah Smith during this difficult time.
