Suspect Arrested for Attempted Murder

UPDATE – Christopher Nicholas Chivily, 22, has been located and arrested without incident in Custer County, Montana. We would like to thank our media and community partners for quickly sharing this information, which ultimately led to his quick apprehension.

"CONTINUING TO BE A PART OF, NOT APART FROM, THE COMMUNITY"

On Monday, September 5, 2022, at approximately 4 p.m., deputies responded to the area of Mountain Road and Overhill Lake Road in reference to a road rage incident where shots were fired.

After a thorough investigation, the green Dodge pickup was located and a suspect has been positively identified.

Christopher Nicholas Chivily is currently wanted by the Hanover County Sheriff's Office for Attempted Murder (F), Shooting from a Vehicle (F), Shooting at an Occupied Vehicle (F), Possession of a Firearm after being Voluntarily Committed (F) and Vandalism (M).

Chivily is believed to be in the Goochland area operating a green 2003 Chevy Silverado, bearing Virginia tags TZG-8575. As he is also believed to be in possession of a firearm, he should be considered armed and dangerous. A photograph of Chivily is attached.

Photos of both Christopher Chivily and his current vehicle are attached.

Anyone with information regarding Christopher Nicholas Chivily's whereabouts is asked to contact the Hanover County Sheriff's Office at (804) 365-6140 or the Metro Richmond Crime Stoppers at (804) 780-1000. Citizens can also download the "P3 Tips" app for their mobile device to submit their tip. Both Crime Stoppers methods are anonymous.
